

Kick-start your sales with ClickShare and Bose Professional

Free 30-day trials for ClickShare CX-30 & Videobar VB-S

A new ClickShare bundle from Barco is here to help you boost your sales. Now you can let your customers combine ClickShare wireless video conferencing with the premium audio and video quality of Bose Professional. The Videobar VB-S is an all-in-one video conferencing device that is an ideal add-on to ClickShare in meeting booths, huddle spaces and rooms up to 3 by 3 meters.

A free, 30-day trial of ClickShare CX-30 and Videobar VB-S may be the ideal way to convince your customers to take their meeting experience seriously. Finally, every meeting participant gets to be part of the conversation, whether they're in the office or working across the globe. ClickShare Conference will automatically connect with the Videobar VB-S making sure anyone can enjoy a seamless meeting experience.

How to request your 30-day trial

1. Register Invite your customer to register at: <https://www.barco.com/en/clickshare/wireless-conferencing/clickShare-cx-30-and-bose-vb-s-solution> and provide the correct shipping address for their bundle. They can also indicate their preferred reseller.
2. Try Customers can try the ClickShare CX-30 and Videobar VB-S bundle for 30 days for free. The trial units must be delivered at the customer's premises.
3. Decide Your customer decides whether they want to buy the ClickShare or Videobar VB-S. They cannot buy the trial unit, we always collect it after the trial. Your customer will have to buy a brand-new ClickShare or Videobar VB-S from you.
